

Special February Break Program!

Free Workshop offered by the:
Town of Granby
Youth Service Bureau and Senior
Services with a grant from the Granby Education Foundation

INTERGENERATIONAL DRUMMING WORKSHOP

February 16–19

1:30–3:30 pm

Senior Center/Youth Services Building
Grades 4–12 and Senior Adults

Led by Gerard Hector, fourth generation African drummer, native of Trinidad and leader of AJALI professional folk group. Hector will teach the youth in the class hands-on to play the djembe (African drum) on the first two days. On the second two days the youth will instruct the senior adults in playing the djembe. African dance will also be incorporated.

NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!
BRING YOUR INTEREST &
MOTIVATION TO PLAY!

Space is limited!

To register, please return this portion of the flyer by February 12 to:

Ingrid Helander, Granby Youth Service Bureau, Senior Center/Youth Services building,
15C North Granby Road, Granby, CT 06035 For assistance or info. Call 860-844-5355

Name: _____ Age _____ School _____

Parent/Guardian name: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

Address: _____

People who may transport your child: _____ Phone: _____

_____ Phone: _____

Please indicate if your child has any special needs of which we should be aware:
(allergies, health, or other) _____

Register now!