

Y.A.C.

Youth Action Council

The Youth Action Council is a group of youth in grades 9 through 12, brought together to work on common goals:

- To discover the needs, interests and concerns of Granby teens.
- To increase public awareness about Granby teens, their needs, interests and concerns.
- To actively serve Granby teens and their community.

The Youth Action Council (Y.A.C.) students represent diverse talents, interests and social groups. Each member of Y.A.C. has a valuable position in that they reflect unique opinions – not only their own, but opinions of those with whom they communicate.

Youth Action Council

The Youth Action Council is a group of youth in grades 9 through 12, brought together to work on the following common goals:

- To discover the needs, interests and concerns of Granby teens.
- To increase public awareness about Granby teens, their needs, interests and concerns.

To actively serve Granby teens and their community.

The Youth Action Council (Y.A.C.) should, therefore, be a group of students with diverse talents, interests and social groups. Each member of Y.A.C. has a valuable position in that they reflect unique opinions – not only their own, but opinions of those with whom they communicate. It is important for each member to be willing to share these opinions and, in the same way, to be open and considerate of the opinions of others.

Action: Y.A.C. is about “doing something”

Whether that “something”:

increases positive visibility for teens (i.e., a service project with seniors or families in town)

Solves a problem for Granby youth (i.e., creating a new activity, group, or community service for youth)

Educates the public about teen concerns (i.e., offering information to the Youth Service Bureau, Granby Board of Education or other Town Board).

The group will decide together the ways their time and effort are best spent.

Expectations for group members:

To know and understand the above information

To represent yourself and the Youth Action Council with integrity and the awareness that YAC promotes positive choices and behaviors among all youth.

If you or someone you know is interested in being a part of Granby Youth Service Bureau’s YAC, please contact AnneMarie Cox at (860) 844-5355.
