OLD BUSINESS

Pat Law started the meeting by giving a brief overview of the Development Process she created. She asked the committee to break into 4 groups. Each group was assigned a Goal and asked to give 3 suggestions/Activities. The Goals were:

- 1) Building Positive Values by Building Restraining Skills
- 2) Develop Youth Empowerment by Creating useful roles for Youth in the Community
- 3) Developing ongoing way for youth to use their time constructively by engaging in creative activities such as lessons and practice
- 4) Who/What is the GPC?

Each group had to fill in the following information for their three Activities: Outcome, Who is responsible, Due Dates, Funding Needs.

Michael Garcia asked if the group had ever asked the parents what they wanted (activities, programs, etc)? The concern is that there would be too many ideas that would be gathered and the group can't accomplish them all.

Pat Law had the group come back together to go over results.

Pastor Al Royal commented that he really thinks the group needs to starting "acting" on some of the ideas that the group comes up with. His fear is that unless the Executive Board connects with their sectors, it goes by the wayside. Pat Law said she feels that all we can do it try.

Jennifer Kertanis said she feels that what the group is doing is really a good foundation to go with.

Kerry Kielbasa said she really thinks that we need to get a committee in place for the "Zombie Run". Holly Johnson made a motion to establish a Zombie Run Committee and it was seconded by Pastor Al Royal. The committee is as follows: Jeffrey Rackliff, Kerry Kielbasa, Pastor Al Royal, Dave Tolli, Daphne Shinder, Holly Johnson, Deborah Lindsey-Lombardi, & Lori Blackburn.
