

Granby Public Libraries Makerspace Patron Use Agreement

Overview

The Cossitt Creation Station is Granby's makerspace for ages 16 and up. A makerspace is a place in which people with shared interests, especially in computing or technology, can gather to work on projects while sharing ideas, equipment, and knowledge.

Confidentiality of User Records

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes Sec. 11-25(b), identifiable personal information contained in the circulation records of the public libraries within the Consortium shall be confidential.

Rules and Procedures of CCS

- Training is required before a patron may reserve any equipment for independent use. Equipment training can be scheduled with the Makerspace Technician and on the library website.
- Closed-toe shoes must be worn while in the makerspace.
- The Granby Public Libraries CCS Makerspace may only be used for lawful purposes. The public is prohibited from using the equipment in the CCS to create material that is:
 - Prohibited by local, state, or federal law.
 - Unsafe, harmful, dangerous or poses an immediate threat to the well-being of others including, but not limited to, weapons (such use may violate the terms of use of the manufacturer).
 - o Obscene or otherwise inappropriate for the Libraries' environment.
 - o In violation of the Libraries' Behavior Policy.
 - In violation of another's intellectual property rights. For example, the equipment may not be used to reproduce material that is subject to copyright, patent, or trademark protection.
 - Patrons will not modify the hardware or software or install new programs onto any of the computers or other equipment.
 - The Libraries reserve the right to deny access if a patron violates any part of the policy, or for any other misuse of the space(s), as determined by Library staff.
- When reserving the makerspace or any equipment in either of the spaces, Library programs have priority, followed by patrons who made a reservation ahead of time. Drop-in requests will be accommodated on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to staff and equipment availability.
- Most makerspace equipment is free to use except for the 3D printers, which require a materials fee. Materials for other machines can be provided at a cost. Please check with the Makerspace Technician for current pricing.
- Patrons may bring their own approved materials to use with makerspace equipment. Materials must be approved by the Makerspace Technician prior to use with the equipment.
- The workspace area of the makerspace is reserved for patrons using CCS equipment or software. All other individuals should use laptops available for check out on the upper level of the library.

- Users must save their work on an external memory source. Flash drives are sold at the Makerspace Technician desk. The Libraries are not responsible for any work that is unsaved, corrupted, or altered in the CCS.
- Makerspace users may not install or download software or upgrades on any equipment or devices. For help, or to suggest software downloads and upgrades, please see the Makerspace Technician.
- The Libraries are not responsible for any manufacturing defects in the quality of workmanship or materials inherent in any of the tools or equipment.
- Items used in the makerspace cannot be borrowed or loaned out.
- Patrons must report any accident/incident that occurs in the makerspace to the Makerspace Technician or Branch Manager.
- CCS follows Granby Public Library food policy.
- Patrons will clean up their work area and stow the equipment if applicable after their project
- Patrons are not allowed to fix equipment. Broken equipment must be reported to the Makerspace Technician.
 - The Libraries are not responsible for any valuables left unattended.
 - These policies are subject to periodic review and change by the Library Board.

Procurement

CCS materials will be selected based on the needs and interests of the library patrons and the community. The library welcomes input from the community concerning the materials and equipment. You can request the purchasing of materials by filling out the "Patron Suggestion for Purchase" slip available at the circulation desk. All suggestions are evaluated using the same selection criteria as for other materials and are not automatically added to the collection.

Due to limited storage space and staff, the library can only accept a limited number of donations. The library does not guarantee the permanence of a gift in the collection. The library will regularly evaluate the materials and equipment in the CCS and any that are not being utilized may be removed.

CCS materials and equipment may be reserved for use with a library program at any given time.
